new girl?
you're the new girl?
Yes just started babysitting at the castle here. I am a famous god but taking a break. MY baby fell down a hole.
god of what? depression?
I used to ripen the crops just by smiling at them.
My daughter was playing with the nymphs nearby. Now, scanning the land with screaming suns for eyes, I can't see her.
DRY and miserable!!! take this barley water
lap it up Anyway, a neon narcissus lay unrooted in place of my child. Peering into the hole where the plant had previously been anchored, the fading sound of clacking hooves rose to my ears as the tunnel narrowed towards me to a shut, blowing dust in my face. Fuck Hades.
