A black and white photograph of a person with curly hair, wearing a dark t-shirt and shorts, crouching on a sandy beach. They are positioned under a large, dark, open umbrella. The person's hands are resting on a patterned towel or blanket on the sand. The background shows the ocean with waves breaking on the shore. The text "IMPROVISED UMBRELLA" is written in a white, hand-drawn, uppercase font across the middle of the umbrella. The text "/ MALIBU" is written in a similar white, hand-drawn, uppercase font in the bottom left corner, enclosed in a thin white rectangular border.
